Introduction

Guidelines for the Colorado Area Convention

These Colorado A.A. convention guidelines are compiled from the shared experience of A.A. members within Colorado (Area 10). They also reflect guidance given through the Twelve Traditions and the General Service Conference. In keeping with our tradition of autonomy, except in matters affecting other groups or A.A. as a whole, overall policy decisions are made by the conscience of the Area 10 Assembly. The purposes of these guidelines are to provide current and future convention committees with the established practices for planning and hosting the Colorado Area Convention.

Why Have a Convention?

The annual convention provides many unique vehicles for promoting the fellowship of A.A. Exposure to speakers from different parts of the country, continuous meetings, meetings on the Steps and Traditions, and the convivial atmosphere surrounding the whole weekend, carry the A.A. message in ways that the groups, by themselves, would find extremely difficult or impossible to achieve. The A.A. groups, through the Area 10 Assembly, coordinates, finances, and supports the Colorado State Convention. Fellowship, laughter, warmth and understanding are among the many reasons that the annual convention has been held every year since 1960 (except 1975 when Colorado hosted the AA International Convention). Many members attend the convention year after year to renew friendships and to strengthen the unity of A.A. in Colorado.

Part One – Bidding Process

Future Colorado State Convention locations are selected at least three years in advance of the event, with an initial vote of the Area Assembly. Districts interested in hosting a future State Convention will need to select and research a location and complete the Colorado State Convention Bid Form. A completed Bid form is to be submitted to the Area Chairperson at least 30 days in advance of the Assembly at which they plan to present the bid. The following preliminary logistical information should be researched and included on the Bid Form to ensure that the facility selected will accommodate the Convention.

A. Meeting Room Requirements –

Main Ballroom: Seating for 1,400 people for Metro/Front Range locations and 1,000 people for bid locations outside the Denver Metro area.

Al-Anon Meeting Space: Seating for 250-300 people.

Al-Anon Luncheon and Saturday Night Banquet: Seating for 200-250 people for the Al-Anon Luncheon and Saturday Night Banquet in a separate meeting room.

Break-Out Rooms: Additional space for Al-Anon meetings, break-out sessions, ice cream social, workshops, continuous meetings, archive displays & other Area 10 committee needs may be required.

B. Overnight Accommodations – Bids for hotels need to include room rates and any reservation timelines. In most cases hotels will offer discounted or no-cost meeting space with a specific number of booked hotel guest rooms. Details of these arrangements should be included with the Bid Form, as well as in a draft contract and any associated pricing proposal. Bidding Districts should seek assistance from the Convention Advisory Committee, Contract Coordinator and the Area Chairperson for assistance negotiating pricing and terms.

C. Dates – Traditionally, the Colorado State Convention is held over Labor Day Weekend.

D. Bid Contracts – Completed Bid Forms need to include draft contracts and any associated pricing agreements. Under no conditions should Districts or Bid Coordinators sign or enter into a contractual obligation on behalf of Area 10. Contracts are only to be signed by the Area Chairperson or the designated trusted servant.

E. Refreshments – Coffee, water, and other beverages are normally made available for sale to participants. Some facilities will allow the Hospitality Committee to bring in their own refreshments. Many hotels, however, restrict sale of beverages to those purchased from the hotel. The District should be aware and state any Food & Beverage minimums that the venue has in their contract.

F. Display Area(s) – Tables/display areas should be provided for each of the Area 10 Standing Committees (CPC, Corrections, Grapevine, etc.) for their committee displays and handouts. Al-Anon is also to be provided with adequate display tables. Specific requirements should be discussed with both the AA and Al-Anon Chairpersons.

G. Registration Area(s) – Location needs to have enough space to accommodate multiple tables for onsite registration and registration pick-up. At certain times of the event, there can be approximately 100 people in line to register.

H. Facility Restrictions – Certain facilities have restrictions such as no-smoking on their property, no beverages in meeting rooms, and the like. Additionally, physical layouts with long distances between meeting rooms and sleeping rooms can present less than ideal conditions for the participants. Special consideration should be given to selecting facilities that will allow the broadest participation of our members and offer accessibility to meeting rooms.

Area 10 Convention Advisory Committee

The Convention Advisory Committee will be for the purpose of continuing the informed conscience of the Area 10 Assembly with reference to conventions and “that the valuable experience of convention planning can be carried over from one year to the next”. The committee will select appropriate meeting times and places, as it deems necessary; however, in no event shall it meet less than once a year. The spiritual intent is to provide consistent guidance for convention committees and future conventions.

The committee shall consist of current convention chairpersons, the immediate past convention chairperson, the current year convention treasurer, the immediate past convention treasurer, the most recent past delegate, and the contract coordinator. Additionally one at-large member shall be appointed by the Area Chairperson for rotation December 1st of odd numbered years. The co-chairperson/co-treasurer of any of the above shall serve as a replacement to anyone unable to fulfill the commitment. Any remaining unfilled slots are to be appointed by the Area Chairperson. Members unable to serve should be replaced by persons who have the particular qualifications (i.e. past delegate, convention chair, or treasurer, etc.) necessary to fill the job. This committee shall be chaired by the immediate past delegate. This committee rotates consistent with all other Area 10 committees (December 1st – November 30th).

Part Three - Convention Practices

- The convention is a registration only event. It is the intent of these guidelines to help direct questions about money. The convention is financed through registrations and each attendee's registration is their voluntary contribution to help pay for the convention. Convention committees are autonomous. A committee may solicit AA group/member donations for attendees who cannot afford the registration fee, however they may not set policy for the following conventions. Committees are not required to manage "scholarship" funds, but may elect to facilitate this at their convention. Any excess registration contributions will be included in the convention revenue at the close of the convention.
- A.A. and the Role and Relation of Al-Anon Family Groups: Al-Anon Family Groups (AFG) traditionally participate in A.A. conventions as invited guests. AFG may hold concurrent event(s) with the A.A. Area convention. In all cases, such activities are carefully coordinated with the convention committee. AFG should provide a committee chairperson or contact that will attend and participate in pre-convention planning and activities. Traditionally, and as part of the convention program, AFG enjoys hosting the Saturday Luncheon with a key speaker address at that time. Also, an AFG speaker is traditionally included on the Saturday evening program before the A.A. speaker. Income and costs for registrations of AFG and tickets purchased for those activities should be strictly accounted for (see Exhibit A). Once again this Luncheon is a paid event and the 7th Tradition basket should not be passed at this event. Costs for AFG speakers should be accounted for (see Treasurer section). As the host of the convention, every convenience and cooperation should be extended to Al-Anon Family Groups.
- The Colorado Area Convention does not contract with vendors for sale of outside merchandise and will remove any advertisement for such items that are displayed in the convention area. Additionally, in alignment with our practice of restricting sales of recovery material and related merchandise, we recommend that the taper be limited to selling audio copies of AA and Al-Anon speakers in the convention area. Other recovery merchandise or motivational speakers and outside 12 Step recordings will need to be sold in an area outside of the convention area.
- Changes to these guidelines should be submitted to the Area 10 Chair. The Area 10 Chair will put the proposed changes on the agenda for the next Area 10 Assembly. Paper copies of the proposed changes, including the affected paragraph(s), before and after the changes, should be brought to the next assembly for distribution by the person requesting the changes. The changes will be approved by a two thirds vote of the Assembly.

Part Four – Area 10 Convention Website Guidelines

A state convention may wish to have a web site to share convention information and to possibly provide for online registration. If they choose to not have online registration, advertisement of the convention flyer and any information about the convention program could be published via the Area 10 Technology Chair on www.coloradoaa.org.

If the committee does choose to have a separate web site and/or allow registration online, it should do so in strict accordance with these guidelines. It is likely that experience can be built from previous convention committees such that the basic design and web structure used from previous conventions can be adapted and evolved rather than each committee creating their own web site.

This website must be established and maintained in strict accordance with the Area 10 Website Guidelines and Website guidelines published by GSO.

In particular, the following principles should apply:

1. There will be no links to any website other than to the Area 10 Website (www.coloradoaa.org) on the Convention Website. This includes having no links to other conventions or commercial enterprises associated with the convention (e.g. tapers, vendors, local establishments, etc.)
 - a. The only possible exception would be to link to the hotel or hotels affiliated with or hosting the convention. Should such a link be provided, it should be made VERY obvious that the person is leaving the Colorado Area 10 Convention website.
2. The website may or may not be hosted by the same website hosting company as the Area 10 website. However, the website must not interfere with the Area 10 website and must be maintained by someone who is responsible to the convention committee.
3. All content on the convention website is the responsibility of the Convention Chair and, ultimately, (as with www.coloradoaa.org) the Area 10 Chair.
4. To avoid confusion, the website for a particular convention will not be active until after the previous year's convention is complete.
5. As soon as the convention is over, the website will be changed to the next year's convention information or disabled if the next year's convention chooses not to have a website.

Area 10 Convention Website Guidelines, continued

6. In accordance with GSO and the Area 10 web guidelines, the site must be hosted by a reliable commercial hosting service – not on a member’s private computer or on a site where “free” hosting is offered in exchange for advertising.

If a convention committee decides to take registrations from members online, the following additional principles apply:

1. Care must be taken to protect the information of any registrant. The registration data must be available only to the convention registration committee and Treasurer.
2. As outlined under the duties of the convention Registration Chair, the only purpose for registration data is to be used for identification at the convention and for mailings pertaining to the subsequent year’s convention. This should be clearly stated on the online registration form and registrants should be provided the opportunity to opt out of receiving subsequent convention mailings, if so desired.
3. If credit card information is accepted for online registration payment, the individual credit card information should NOT be collected or stored on the convention website or in the registration database. The vendor selected to process payment should also not be given personal information about the member apart from that necessary to prevent fraud.
4. Care must be taken to protect both the convention treasury and the Area 10 treasury and accounts from potential security breaches or unauthorized charges or charge-backs.
